

Board Member and Executive Remuneration 2022/2023

Fire & Emergency Services
Superannuation Fund

The Fire and Emergency Services Superannuation Board is a Western Australian Government Board and remuneration of its Board Members is determined by the Treasurer.

It is Western Australian Government policy that Board Members employed on the public payroll are not eligible for remuneration for work performed on its government boards, including the FES Super Board.

The following table sets out the remuneration paid to each Board Member and Executive Officer for the 2021/22 and 2022/23 financial years.

On the public payroll and therefore not entitled to payment for work on this Western Australian Government board.

Mr Burnell retired from the public payroll and became eligible for payment for work on this board in October 2022.

DFES = Department of Fire and Emergency Services

The Board conducted performance assessments for the Fund Secretary and Risk and Compliance Manager in 2022/2023.

Shaded boxes mean the person was not a Board Member or Alternate Board Member during that period.
