

Spouse Voluntary Contributions

Fire & Emergency Services
Superannuation Fund

DO NOT USE THIS FORM if you want to make contributions to your own super account.
Use the form entitled 'Additional Voluntary Contributions'.

1. You and your spouse must meet the following requirements to have additional voluntary contributions accepted by the Fund:
  - Your spouse must have provided the Fund with their tax file number;
  - You and your spouse must have completed a "Spouse Member Application" form and your spouse become a member of the Fund before the additional voluntary contribution is made;
  - If your spouse is under age 75, all contributions in respect of them will be accepted subject to their total superannuation balance at 30 June of the prior financial year being less than $1.7 million and sufficient unused annual contributions cap; and
  - If your spouse is aged 75 or over, no contributions in respect of them will be accepted.
2. If you are a current "employee" as defined by the Fund's governing Regulations, you may elect to make additional voluntary contributions for your spouse through regular payroll deductions subject to the contributions being a minimum of 1% of your superannuation salary at the time of making the contribution.
3. You may make future lump sum superannuation contributions to the Fund for your spouse provided that the contribution amount is not less than $100.
4. You must provide proof of your identity at the time of making the additional voluntary contribution to the Fund for your spouse.

General information

5. The above conditions are subject to the provisions prescribed by Federal Government legislation and also the Fund's governing Act and Regulations and may be varied at any time by the Fire and Emergency Services Superannuation Board.
6. Contributions paid into the Fund for your spouse cannot be cashed by them until they have met a condition of release for their superannuation entitlement.
